An individual or entity seeking to 298 intervene in a contested case under Rule 24 of the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure may appear 299 through an attorney or representative prior to a ruling on the motion to intervene. 300 301 (Formerly 6(b)) Any person appearing in a proceeding before the Council shall conform 302 to the recognized standards of ethical conduct. 303 304 Prior to withdrawing from a contested case, an attorney shall file a motion to withdraw. The motion for an attorney's withdrawal shall include a statement indicating the 305 306 manner in which notification was given to the client and setting forth the client's last known 307 address and telephone number. The hearing officer shall not grant the motion to withdraw unless the attorney has made reasonable efforts to give actual notice to the client that: 308 309 310 (i) The attorney wishes to withdraw: 311 312 (ii) The client has the burden of keeping the hearing officer informed of the address where notices, pleadings, or other papers may be served; 313 314 315 The client has the obligation to prepare, or to hire another attorney or 316 representative to prepare, for the contested case and the dates of proceedings; 317 318 The client may suffer an adverse determination in the contested case if 319 the client fails or refuses to meet these burdens; 320 321 The pleadings and papers in the case shall be served upon the client at (v) the client's last known address; and 322 323 324 The client has the right to object within fifteen (15) days of the date of (vi) 325 notice. 326 327 Prior to withdrawing from a contested case, a representative shall provide written 328 notice of withdrawal to the Council. 329 330 Section 9. Subpoenas Intervention. 331 332 Any person interested in obtaining the relief sought by a (Formerly Section 7(a)) (a) 333 party or otherwise interested in the determination of a proceeding, relating to other than surface 334 coal mining operations pending before the Council, may petition for leave file a motion for leave 335 to intervene in such proceeding prior to before or at the date of hearing, but not thereafter except for good cause shown. The petition motion shall set forth the grounds of the proposed 336 337 intervention, the position and interest of the petitioner in the proceeding, and if affirmative relief 338 is sought, the same should conform to the requirements for a formal petition. Leave will shall not 339 be granted unless the Council shall determines that the party requesting to intervene movant is set out in W.R.C.P. Rule 24.

(Formerly 7(b)) (b) For proceedings related to surface coal mining operations, any person may petition file a motion for leave to intervene as a full party or , if desired in a limited capacity, at any stage of a proceeding conducted by the Council. The petition-motion shall include the basis for intervention and shall be granted to any person who either could have initiated the proceeding or has an interest which that may be adversely affected by the outcome of the proceeding. Regardless of these bases, intervention may be granted whenever appropriate, after consideration of considering the nature of the issues, the adequacy of the existing parties representation of petitioner's movant's interest, the ability of the petitioner movant to present relevant evidence and argument, and the effect of intervention on the implementation of the Wyoming Environmental Quality Act. The extent and terms of participation by an intervenor in a limited capacity shall be determined by the Council.-

(Formerly 7(c)) (c) If leave the motion to intervene is granted, the petitioner movant becomes an intervenor and a party to the proceeding with the right to have notice, appear at the taking of testimony, produce and cross_examine witnesses, and be heard on the argument of the case. The party intervening shall give notice of intervention to all other parties.

(Formerly 7(d)) The party intervening must give notice of such intervention to all other parties to the appeal.

Section 10. Depositions Ex Parte Communications.

(a) In all contested areas coming before the Council, the taking of depositions and discovery shall be available to the parties and to the Council on its own motion in accordance with the provisions of W.S. 9 4 107(g).

(b) The Council, for the purposes of allowing orderly presentation of evidence, may govern the conduct of discovery and the time limitations involved.

Except as authorized by law, a party or a party's attorney or representative shall not communicate with any Council member in connection with any issue of fact or law concerning any pending contested case, except upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. Should ex parte communication occur, the Council member shall advise all parties of the communication as soon as possible thereafter and, if requested, shall allow any party an opportunity to respond prior to ruling on the issue.

Section 11. Witness Fees Motions and Motion Practice.

(a) Witnesses who are summoned before the Council are entitled to the same fees as are paid for like service in the District Courts of the State of Wyoming. Such fees shall be paid by the party at whose insistence the testimony was taken.

(formerly Section 3(a)) (a) The Council or presiding officer may, upon reasonable notice to all parties, hear orally,or otherwise, any motion filed in connection with hearings under these rules. Unless these rules or an order of the hearing officer establish time limitations other than those contained herein, all motions except motions for enlargement of time and motions made during hearing shall be served at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing on the motion. A party affected by the motion may serve a response together with affidavits, if any, at least three (3) days before the hearing on the motion or within twenty (20) days after service of the motion,
