

Rebecca Leibinger

Open records of public processes are an important component of a democratic society. Please keep that essential right available for WY citizens. We all have an important stake in the DEQ and its processes.