Hi Kyle,

Carol asked me to run an AVS on Blackjewel today for you. I'm not sure how you wanted it ran for sure so I ran it under an Entity and Application for TFN 6 2/299 under Blackjewel LLC. I also ran it under Permit, but that name is under Contura Coal West LLC. I also ran Contura for application for TFN 6 1/315 (the TFN Mark asked me to run last week). All of them came back with 32 violations. Four outstanding and 28 conditional. I hope one of these is what you were wanting. If you need it ran under a different TFN or something else, please let me know and I'll get it done right away. I have attached all of them.

Thanks
