DRAFT 04/07/22

BEFORE THE ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY COUNCIL STATE OF WYOMING

IN THE MATTER OF THE PROPOSED CHAPTER 18 OF THE SOLID WASTE RULES	) PRINC	EMENT OF CIPAL REASONS LOOPTION
The Environmental Quality Council (Counc Statute § 35-11-112(a)(i), has adopted Wyor Coal Combustion Residuals in Landfills and	ming Solid Was	te Rules Chapter 18, Disposal of
The Department of Environmental Quality, waste facilities using the Solid Waste Rules disposal of coal combustion residuals in landutilities or independent power producers. The waste provisions, Subtitle D, of the Resource in the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 40 location restrictions, design criteria, operating action, closure and post-closure care, record the internet. Incorporating these standards be the federal minimum criteria. Currently, in within the Wyoming Department of Environmental residuals. This program will consolidate all residuals under the Wyoming Department of Division.	(SWR). Specifidfills and surfactive requirements of the Conservation, Part 257, Subpring criteria, ground keeping, notificity reference ensuraddition to the framental Quality regulations for	cally, SWR Chapter 18 will regulate e impoundments at active electric ts have been finalized under the solid and Recovery Act, specifically found part D. These regulations address andwater monitoring and corrective ation, and posting of information to present that the SWR Chapter 18 meets rederal regulations, multiple divisions gulate the disposal of coal combustion the disposal of coal combustion
The Council finds that these regulations are and purpose of the Act as stated in Wyomin accordance with the rulemaking provisions	g Statute § 35-1	1-102, and have been promulgated in
Dated this	day of	, 2022.
Hearing Examiner – Printed Name Wyoming Environmental Quality Council		g Examiner – Signed Name ng Environmental Quality Council