

Gregory Zeigler

As an asthmatic I can speak to the negative health effects from excessive methane gas. As a state we all want healthy children and methane is proven to be a leading cause of asthma in children. As a huge state with a small population we have a chance to be a national leader in clean air. Let's take it.