Dear Jim—The purpose of this email is to confirm our oral request, made this afternoon, to delay any scheduling conference until the week of July 14th. I am also committed to providing the state with an amended request for hearing after June 17th. The parties are attempting to work on a framework for settlement.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Mary Throne

Dear Counselors:

The Hearing officer would like to do two things in the above entitled matter. First, hold a scheduling conference next week on Thursday at 9:00 a.m. the scheduling conference would be by telephone but you are welcome to come to our offices if you wish. Second, the Department in their response asserts that that case should be dismissed for failure to comply with the rules and regulations. The hearing officer would like to have that issue argued before the Council at its next meeting July 10, 2014 in Laramie.

Let me know if you are available on those dates.

Jim
