I don't have any objections to the exhibits I have seen thus far that were filed with EQC and I am willing to stipulate that all exhibits filed be admitted so the counsel may view them on the final exhibit tab.

Thanks,
David

Dear Parties:

As you are aware our system is currently having problems uploading final exhibits. If there are no objections to any of the exhibits then we could upload them using the pleading exhibit tab instead of the final exhibits tab. The difference between the two tabs is that the final exhibits are not viewable by the council until they are admitted into evidence. If you are willing to stipulate to the introduction of all exhibits then the hearing officer can accept them into evidence and we can file them under pleading exhibits so they are viewable.

Let me know your preference.

Jim
