

Eric Dalton

I support DEQ and EPA efforts to reduce wasted, leaked methane. It is a wasted resource that is also contributing to climate change and air pollution. This is a common sense idea that would score multiple wins including the opportunity for the state to capture more royalties.