

Doyal Waterworth

Look around at our state. Everywhere you go you can see energy industry related equipment and buildings sitting around that have long ago been left to rust and ruin and sully the views of this once great state. Don't let Wyoming become the Industrial Energy Dump bin of Methane as well. We have been abused by the Energy Companies for far too long.