

Jason Simoneaux

No venting should be allowed. Oil and gas companies continue to waste and pollute by venting. They leave wells abandoned and the prepayment required is undervalued. Producers should be held accountable.