

Lynne Bryant

I enthusiastically support these rules to improve the air quality in Wyoming. We are known for our beautiful outdoor spaces and our friendly people. We need and deserve better air quality for ourselves and our many visitors. Methane emissions are harmful to our wildlife, our environment, and our citizens, without even addressing the wastefulness that produces it. Make our exquisite Wyld Wyoming safer and healthier!