

Kelly Baxter

I support Wyoming DEQ's efforts to develop new rules under Wyoming Air Quality Standards and Regulations in order to reduce harmful methane emissions from oil and gas operations. Methane causes health problems and is also a major cause of climate change. It's a no brainer that our environmental agency would act to reduce the impact. That's why we have a WY DEQ, right?