

Roberr Caspar

I support the efforts to curb methane gas. We live in Wyoming because of the abundance of natural settings, most importantly which include clean air, clean water, open space, and wildlife. We already see that in certain areas both water and air are compromised. We should be a leader in clean energy production which will provide a better long term economic return also. Please implement the EPA rules fully.

Thank you for your consideration .