

Tea Obrecht

The state is on fire. We cannot continue to pretend that climate change is not advancing faster than anticipated. Every action we take counts towards building a better future for our children, and building more effective and sustainable energy systems. I support Wyoming DEQ's efforts to develop new rules under Wyoming Air Quality Standards and Regulations in order to reduce harmful methane emissions from oil and gas operations.