

Gregg Randolph

Methane is a very powerful pollutant and driver of climate change. We need to take every possible measure to ensure the best mitigation of release. Please implement the strongest measures possible. All previous installations need to be properly capped and maintained. We cannot afford errant emissions.